1. 授業のねらい・概要 Course Description

The goal of this course is to engage students in intermediate-level English as it is used in communication among native speakers. The lessons are divided according to topic-based readings and vocabulary. Since this course is a part of the nursing school curriculum, there will be an emphasis on health-related topics.

2. 学修の到達目標

Upon completing this course, students can expect to have an increased level of confidence in using English in daily life situations which require them to use English in an international setting, or to communicate with native English speakers.

3. 授業の進め方

Students will be introduced to the reading passage and vocabulary of the day. Students will complete language tasks and exercises which use the vocabulary and language structures of that lesson focus. These activities will provide opportunities to use the newly-learned words in their proper contexts. Relevant DVD material will also be used to supplement the lesson content.
